
MY THIRD YEAR WITH VEGAS DAVE

I highly recommend the Vegas Dave system package to all my family and friends. Simply follow the rules he has outlined and you will augment your income and allow you to pay for your son's tuition, your daughter's wedding, or take that vacation that is always planned but put off to next year.

Follow the plan and you will be successful.

Why take my word for it? You do not know me. I'm not providing you my name. Who am I?

Like you, I work in the industry. My family and I need me to keep working, so I am not providing my name. Also, like you I heard of Vegas Dave years ago. A friend suggested I join the program and share in the success he was enjoying. "Come on, join us! We are 20-0 and it isn't mid-season yet!"

My reply was BS, no one is that good.

But I started to watch closer. Dave's web site continued to tally the wins. Ok, they all do. Other than my friend's recommendation it was Facebook that convinced me this was a real deal. Watch any of the videos of him cashing in one day more than I make in a year.

So three years ago I jumped in. Followed the rules and at the end of the season I made 4x my starting bankroll and picked up over 30k on the World Series. I had never watched a professional baseball game in my life prior to this point. Zero interest. Until now.

Prior to the second season, I wanted to see if I could use my skills as a data analyst to determine winning trends. So I got a couple friends together and with the help of a PHD mathematician, a server guy, and a couple data analysts, we crunched ten years of baseball stats to develop a recipe to identify a winner in any given match.

In the first month, we doubled our bankroll and had achieved a 12-0 record.

In the second month, we lost six consecutive four game series. That is a string of 24 consecutive losses. Statistically, nearly impossible. Our bankroll was wiped out, season over in the second month. We invested a lot of time and money into our education to learn a couple of facts:

1. Dave is doing something different than complex statistical analysis.
2. What he does works.

I spent a lot of money learning that.

Now we are in season three. Currently sitting at a 28-0 record.

I'd like to end this as I started it. I highly recommend the Vegas Dave system package to all my family and friends. Simply follow the rules he has outlined.
